

NautaDutilh strengthens its Brussels Corporate M&A practice with the arrival of Philippe Remels

Mrs. Philippe Remels

Mrs. Philippe Remels

Law firm NautaDutilh welcomes Philippe Remels as a partner in its Brussels office. Philippe's arrival reinforces NautaDutilh's Corporate M&A practice, which is expanding from four to five partners. Philippe has 20 years' experience in corporate law and previously worked at international law firm Linklaters in Brussels.

Philippe specialises in various areas of corporate law, with a particular focus on mergers and acquisitions, reorganisations, shareholder agreements, joint ventures, private equity transactions and capital markets. He has extensive experience with and comprehensive knowledge of regulated sectors such as life sciences, healthcare, chemicals and energy. His expertise is the perfect fit with the sector focus of NautaDutilh Brussels.

Dirk Van Gerven, managing partner of NautaDutilh Brussels: "Six months as managing partner and already a big fish in the net."

"We are proud to welcome such a top lawyer to our team and are sure that Philippe is the ideal complement and reinforcement for our Corporate M&A team," says Dirk Van Gerven, managing partner of NautaDutilh Brussels. "Coupled with the recent arrival of privacy and data protection specialist Brahim Benichou as of counsel, this constitutes yet another, and certainly not the last, strong addition to the firm."