G eraldine Scraeyen has been promoted to Counsel in the Dispute Resolution practice of Quinz.

G eraldine has been with Quinz since 2013 and focuses on complex civil and commercial litigation, white collar crime and post-acquisition disputes. G eraldine's practice ranges from pre-litigation advice, risk management and settlement negotiations to representation before Belgian civil and criminal courts and national and international arbitral tribunals.

With this promotion, Quinz confirms its commitment to secure the best career opportunities for its talented lawyers and to settle for nothing less than excellence in serving its clients. Quinz looks forward to the further growth of its Dispute Resolution practice.
