

Pharumlegal welcomes Marc Picat

Pharumlegal is very pleased to announce that Marc Picat has joined the firm as partner in its European law and International Commercial department. He would also be responsible of the French Desk.

Marc's practice focuses on European and competition law as well as on international commercial matters.

He started to work in the legal departments of Andersen and PwC. He then moved to PwC in Brussels in 1993 where he was the Head of International Commercial and EU law department. Subsequently, he joined TaylorWessing Brussels office as Managing Partner in 2005 up to early 2010 before joining Belgian law firms until now.

He is member of the Paris and Brussels Bars as well as the International Distribution Institute (IDI) and of the Chambre de Commerce et d'Industrie (CCI).

Philippe Vlaemminck, founder of the firm comments: "We are thrilled to have Marc on our team. His experience, insights and contacts will be invaluable for the further expansion of the law practice at our firm. We are excited to have him joining our firm and he will be a true asset to the team here."

Marc Picat said of his move: "I am truly delighted to join Pharumlegal I am very much looking forward to contributing my antitrust law expertise and my international experience to the firm's growing development, and to taking up a prominent role in its international network".
