

Eubelius appoints a new Partner and three new Counsels

Eubelius is particularly pleased to announce the appointment of Felix Dobbelaere as a new Partner. Felix is a seasoned M&A attorney based in our Kortrijk office. Eubelius has also appointed three new Counsels: Anneleen Van de Meulebroucke, Hans Plancke and Stijn Goovaerts.

Felix Dobbelaere focuses on national and international M&A, private equity and venture capital, and has an in-depth knowledge of (international) corporate reorganisations. With the promotion of Felix, our Kortrijk office now counts four Partners.

Anneleen Van de Meulebroucke heads the digital & data protection team and focuses on digitalisation in the broadest sense and data law in particular. She has been with Eubelius since 2011.

Hans Plancke specialises in public law, with a particular focus on public procurement law and other public contracts. Hans regularly advises clients on how to structure collaborations between the public and the private sector, and on complex tender procedures. He has been a member of the Brussels Bar since 2012 and an attorney at Eubelius since 2012.

Stijn Goovaerts specialises in European law, (Belgian and European) competition law and state aid. He focuses in particular on complex transactions and cooperation projects between competitors and helps clients to structure such projects in line with the competition rules. He has been a member of the Brussels Bar since 2010.
