

Timothy Baete has joined elegis!

elegis is pleased to announce that Timothy Baete joined the firm as a partner, in the Brussels premises. Timothy is part of Jean Pierre Renard and Thierry Ghilain's team.

His arrival strengthens our practices and enhances our range of services in commercial contracts and corporate law.

Timothy Baete was admitted to the Brussels Bar in 2008. Before joining elegis, Timothy was counsel at Van Olmen & Wynant. Timothy advises national and international clients, including public authorities, in banking, medical, real estate, mobility and sports sectors, regarding various aspects of commercial law and corporate law, and in particular on matters related to distribution and cooperation agreements.

Timothy also has specific knowledge in public contracts, concessions and public-private partnerships. He has extensive experience in litigation both before Belgian judicial and administrative courts (Council of State) and before arbitral tribunals, and in enforcement related issues.
