

Nancy Maes joins DBB Law Firm

DBB Law Firm is pleased to announce that Nancy Maes has joined the firm. Given her qualifications and experience, Nancy's main tasks will include the start up of DBB's practices in 'Pharmaceutical Law' and 'Disciplinary Law'.

Nancy began her practice specializing in Professional Liability and Insurance. She later enriched such experience representing the Belgian Association of Pharmacists.

During the four years spent with the Association of Pharmacists, Nancy acquired specific knowledge and expertise of the pharmaceutical industry, including disciplinary action, legislation and regulation, as well as the institutional aspects of the Association. Pierre Demolin, co-founding partner of DBB Law : "This experience constitutes an important advantage in developing our new practices".

Nancy is reintegrating the Bar with DBB LAW and her professional experience will allow us to offer competent and efficient services to the various professions and more particularly in Disciplinary Law.

In commenting the creation of our 'Pharmaceutical law' department, Benoit Simpelaere, partner and head of our 'Mergers & Acquisitions' practice, adds : "The synergies between these two newly-created practice groups, working closely with the 'M&A' and 'Distribution Law' departments, will give the firm the opportunity of offering truly global services to all of the stakeholders in the pharmaceutical sector".
