

An associate in Public Law (0-4 years experience) 13/01/2020

Company description:

At Lydian, a rewarding job with variety and challenge awaits you, where you will be advising a good mix of Belgian and international clients in a wide array of sectors.

Searched profile

- You hold a Belgian Masters in law, testimony to your academic and social engagement that helps you to stand out from the crowd.
- You are a team player looking for work in a competitive yet collective environment.
- You like working in a full service law firm, with a sound Belgian business case.
- You are a native Dutch speaker with an excellent command of English or French.
- Experience in public law in an international or national law firm in Belgium is a plus.
- As a bonus, you have obtained a LL.M. or another useful third cycle degree or you are fluent in another EU language.

Offer

- You will work for one of the leading (economic) public law practices on the Belgian market, providing services to all levels of government as well as companies and private clients dealing with government.
- You will be part of well integrated team, well known in the public law market.
- You will work on challenging and diverse cases, having the opportunity to work with other departments of our firm, as well as with third party experts.
- You will be offered both the opportunity to develop your career at Lydian and a competitive and attractive remuneration package.

Contact

<http://www.lydian.be/vacancies>