

Marie Brasseur has been made Partner

Ms. Marie Brasseur

Ms. Marie Brasseur

ALTIUS has invited its experienced Corporate and M&A specialist Marie Brasseur into the firm's equity partnership. Marie's promotion highlights the firm's dynamic structure and continuous growth.

"Marie is an excellent Corporate and M&A lawyer with remarkable international expertise. She is lauded as proactive, communicative and highly solution-oriented. ALTIUS and its Corporate and M&A clients will benefit from her unparalleled drive. Year after year, Marie has proved her dedication to her work and an unwavering determination. Both have undoubtedly contributed to our firm's national and international development", says Sylvie Dubois, ALTIUS' Managing Partner.

Marie is Vice President of the Corporate and M&A Commission of the International Young Lawyers Association (AIJA). Marie is also an Officer of the International Bar Association.

Over many years, Marie has built up a solid reputation in the Belgian and international legal markets and has been nominated as a "Next generation lawyer" in the latest edition of Legal 500.

"I am delighted to join the partnership having enjoyed playing a part in ALTIUS' growth over a number of years and I look forward to further strengthening our Corporate and M&A practice", comments Marie Brasseur.