

Quinz appoints new counsel

 Quinz has promoted Wim De Meester to counsel as of January 1, 2020. Wim joined Quinz in 2014 and has since focused on national and international commercial and regulatory litigation and arbitration. Wim also significantly contributed to the growth of Quinz's competition law practice. Wim's promotion within Quinz is a recognition of the firm's commitment to focus on new areas of growth such as EU and Belgian competition law.

Partners Benoît Allemeersch and Olivier Van Obberghen commented: "Quinz is a client-driven firm which has always brought in the talent necessary to provide the quality services our clients expect. Wim has developed a unique expertise in assisting our clients with complex commercial and regulatory litigation and can be considered as the instigator for Quinz's competition law practice. As a firm we strongly believe in the further development of this practice."
