

Michel Vandersmissen appointed Partner

Janson is delighted to announce that Michel Vandersmissen has been appointed Partner, effective March 2021, 12 years after he joined Janson.

Michel specialises in energy law, in particular the regulation and liberalisation of the electricity and gas markets.

Guy Block, head of the Energy, climate change and mobility department, said « We are delighted to welcome Michel into the partnership at Janson ».

To find out more about Michel or to contact him, please see his full profile.