

Interns
25/09/2019

Company description:

In more than 65 years of practice, Steptoe has gained a national and international reputation for vigorous representation of clients before governmental agencies, successful advocacy in litigation and arbitration, and creative and practical advice in guiding business transactions. The firm has offices in Brussels, Beijing, Chicago, London, Los Angeles, New York, San Francisco and Washington.

Candidates must be willing to work in more than one of our practice areas.

Positions are offered for 6 months, with the possibility of an extension thereafter for exceptional candidates.

Candidates must be good team-players who can also work independently when required.

On the job training and mentoring is provided to all our junior colleagues. In addition to client projects, the work includes participation in marketing and business development initiatives.

The successful candidates will be fluent in English. Fluency in other languages would be an advantage.

Please direct your application to Kathleen Van Nuffel, Director, kvannuffel@steptoe.com

Function

Our busy Brussels office seeks Interns to support all four of its practice areas: Competition/Antitrust and State Aid; Environment, Life Sciences and Nanotechnology; Financial Services, Insurance; and Trade. Candidates must hold an undergraduate or postgraduate degree in law.

Searched profile

Candidates must be willing to work in more than one of our practice areas.

Candidates must be good team-players who can also work independently when required.

The successful candidates will be fluent in English. Fluency in other languages would be an advantage.

Offer

Positions are offered for 6 months, with the possibility of an extension thereafter for exceptional candidates.

On the job training and mentoring is provided to all our junior colleagues. In addition to client projects, the work includes participation in marketing and business development initiatives.

Contact

Please direct your application to Kathleen Van Nuffel, Director, kvannuffel@steptoe.com. Please mention the reference LexGO06/08-III.