

Corporate Tax (Senior) Manager - Hasselt 03/01/2020

Company description:

The world around us is constantly evolving and so is our business and that of our clients.

Our strategy is to serve clients from strategy through execution. This approach is all about bringing our broad portfolio of specialised services together to serve clients in a more complete way from agenda setting with regards what's right for the client's business to the full implementation of a high-quality solution. As a corporate tax (senior) manager you will be part of our Belgium corporate tax team and help our clients to ensure that their tax strategy is fully aligned to their business strategy and help them to ensure that they can cope with the ever increasing and complex reporting requirements.

Would you like to be part of the ever-changing and globalising world of finance and tax matters?

Helping some of the most fascinating companies and individuals on the planet in a team with some of the best professionals in their domain to deal with their tax requirements will allow you to develop yourself throughout your career in a challenging and international environment.

Your skills and creativity will contribute to solving complex issues and will generate new insights for our clients.

Plenty of opportunities are there for you to seize them!

Function

- As a Corporate Tax (Senior) Manager you will play a key role in providing corporate tax advisory services to a portfolio of international and local clients with a focus on the Limburg region, including start-ups & scale-ups and family-owned businesses.
- Together with a team of qualified professionals, you will furthermore assist and advise your clients in their dealings with the tax authorities and you will propose tailor-made tax solutions.

- You also constantly keep an eye out for possible opportunities relevant for your clients and act as a trusted business advisor. This will involve close collaboration with our other specialised departments, such as transfer pricing and merger & acquisitions, but also personal tax and indirect tax.
- You will develop and lead a team in order to deliver results in a responsible, authentic and passionate manner. You will also work in close internal cooperation with colleagues specialising in a multitude of area's related to tax, legal, accounting, audit and consulting..
- From our location in Hasselt, no need to spend hours every day to commute to Brussels or Antwerp. You will be able to work on challenging assignments with a better work/life balance. you will develop new business opportunities with our cross-business unit team within the whole Limburg region.

Searched profile

- Bachelor or master's degree in law or economics with degree in taxes. You have a deep knowledge of the Belgian tax law.
- Proficient experience in corporate taxation of at least 5 of relevant experience.
- Ability to analyse complex problems and present them in a synthesised manner, project management skills
- Ability to work within budgetary and time constraints while providing a high-level of client satisfaction
- Good presentation skills and fluent (report) writing skills; a feeling for IT is a valuable asset
- A team-player attitude with outstanding communication skills. You are an entrepreneur, committed, flexible, accurate and eager to learn
- Fluent in English and Dutch, with knowledge of French

Offer

At PwC we significantly invest in our biggest asset "our people". In addition to a competitive salary, supplemented with attractive fringe benefits, we offer you a multidisciplinary and international environment with challenging career perspectives, continuous personal development, learning program and on-the-job training.

Contact

Apply directly via PwC's website

