

The Digital Legal Department: Are you ready for the future?

Knowliah and FrahanBlondé are happy to invite you to a free session of "The Digital Legal Department" on Tuesday, 18 October 2016 at 16.00h at Living Tomorrow (House of The Future) in Vilvoorde.

This session is intended for in-house legal counsel who seek to:

- boost their efficiency through automation and re-use of existing information and knowledge.
- increase their impact through smart reporting and improved risk management.
- optimize their limited resources through better planning of budgets, projects and priorities.

Programme:

16.00h: Welcome and coffee.

16.15h: "A digital (r)evolution is the only possible answer to the most important challenges of in-house legal counsel", by Barend Blondé from FrahanBlondé.

16.45h: "Knowledge Management concepts applied to legal", by Hans Van Heghe, author of Knowledge Centric Management and CEO of Knowliah.

17.15h: "Demo of the Knowliah Digital Workplace for Legal", by Yves Lefere, Director Sales & Marketing at Knowliah.

17.45h: Q&A and networking cocktail.

Venue: Living Tomorrow, Indringingsweg 1, 1800 Vilvoorde

Language: Dutch - French

Timing: 16.00h - 18.30h

Knowliah Digital Workplace for Legal is the new digital right hand of the corporate in-house legal counsel: intelligent search, document management, matter management, reporting, contract management, litigation, compliance, knowledge management, entity management etc.

You want to digitise your legal department and prepare for the future? Then make sure you are part of it and register now!