

Younity welcomes a new partner

Bernard Caris has been a lawyer since 1994 and is amongst the most recognized Belgian practitioners in the field of business immigration. He assists international companies with regard to international labour mobility (work permits, visa, nationality, etc.). The same goes for self-employed executives (professional cards).

Bernard is a member of ABII (Alliance of Business Immigration Lawyers), an international network of lawyers specialized in business immigration. He is a regular speaker at Belgian and international conferences on business immigration and is the author of various publications in this area.

Corinne Merla, Younity managing partner, comments:

“Thanks to Bernard’s arrival, Younity has a 360° service offer in its field of activity, i.e. human resources. We are real experts in all areas of human resources law in the broad term : labour law, pension law and other welfare plans, Compensation & Benefits, Public Sector and IP/IT aspects related to human resources ... and, from now on, all aspects related to business immigration. Needless to say that we are very happy to welcome Bernard as a partner.”

Bernard Caris : “I am very happy to join Younity and I look forward to further developing and strengthening my business immigration practice here. Younity’s all-round legal excellence in the field of human resources, its modern and efficient organisation, and its both national and international focus, are values and views which I fully support. “
